Dear 2026 Graduates,

Congratulations on your graduation!

The Ministry of Higher Education (MoHE) Tracer Study website for 2026 graduates is now open. Your participation is important as it helps Ministry of Higher Education track graduates' employment outcomes and contributes to the evaluation and ranking of Netherlands Maritime University College (NMUC) under SETARA (Malaysian Higher Education Institutions Rating System).

As part of the Ministry of Higher Education's requirement, all graduates are required to complete the Tracer Study before collection of convocation robe, Testamur, and Academic Transcript.

The link to the online survey page is available at: https://graduan.mohe.gov.my/skpg26/

You are strongly encouraged to complete the survey before 23 November 2026.

This information is required by the Ministry of Education to enable them to keep track of the graduates in Malaysia, as well as to establish alumni records for future events, collaboration, networking & opportunities.

Below are the steps you need to take to complete the survey:

1. Open the Tracer Study link at https://graduan.mohe.gov.my/skpg26/
2. Change the language setting to English, if preferred.
3. Key in your IC/Passport/Army number.
4. Key in the institution name as Netherlands Maritime University College.
5. Answer the questions based on the instructions.
6. Click the Submit button.
7. Take a screenshot or save the official submission confirmation as proof. You must present this proof to the staff as follows:
   - Graduands attending the convocation: During the collection of your convocation robe.
   - Graduands not attending the convocation: During the collection of your Testamur and Academic Transcript.
